is not stated how large a force the Italians will send to the assist-ance of the Serbians and Montenegrins, but from the fact that the official ac-count intimates that landings have been made at more than one port, it is taken for granted that an army of considerable proportions is to be sent across the Adriatic. This, with the Montenegrins and Serbians who escaped into Albania will be a serious threat to the central powers' right flank, while they can never look in idleness on the concentration of an army at Saloniki, which at a chosen moment, will undertake an offensive, and on the gathering of Russians in

Germans to Strike at Saloniki. It is anticipated, therefore, that the Germans will strike at Saloniki before the Anglo-French forces grow too strong and it is believed that with that end in view they are negotiating with the Greek government.

Greeks Will Oppose Bulgarian Invasion if their plans include the participa-tion of the Bulgarians in the attack, they are likely to meet with opposition from Greece as Greece is strongly averse to any Bulgarians crossing her frontier. This applies also to some extent to the Austrians, whose ambitions always have been for a port on the Aegean, preferably Saloniki.

On the whole, therefore, it is thought here that the Greeks might prefer to see the entente remain there until the end of the war. In fact, Lord Robert Cecll, under-secretary of foreign af-

Members of both committees ques-tioned spokesmen of the Congressional union closely as to their reasons for campaigning in the last election against democratic candidates for reelection to the house who had sup-ported the suffrage cause. Miss Paul, Mrs. Minnavan Winkle of New Jersey, Mrs. Lillian Ashcough of Connecticut and other speakers frankly declared that they had opposed these candi-dates because they had participated in a democratic caucus which decreed that the federal suffrage amendment should not be made a part of the legislative programme at the last session. Several of the women remarked that their last campaign had been effective, as the democratic leaders were not now proposing to prevent a vote on the amendment by caucus action.

Dr. Shaw, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt and other members of the National as-sociation declared they did not sup-port the militant tactics of the Congressional union; that they were non-partisan in their appeals for votes on the Susan B. Anthony amendment and that they appealed to both demoerats and republicans despite the atti tude any members had taken in the
